

ELIZAVETA BARRETT RISTROPH

410 BURGIN AVE., BATON ROUGE, LA 70808

TELEPHONE: 907-342-9090 • E-MAIL: BARRETT@RISTROPHLAW.COM • HTTPS://RISTROPHLAW.COM/

SUMMARY

I am a lawyer, planner, researcher, mediator, facilitator and professional evaluator specializing in

- Planning for land use, climate change adaptation, hazard mitigation
 - Drafting contracts, policies, reports, articles, and outreach materials
 - Creating maps, graphics, videos, and forms
 - Representing clients on issues of indigenous rights and natural resources
 - Facilitating meetings and negotiations
 - Conducting interviews and social science research
 - Evaluating programs and research projects
 - Analysis and recommendations for human rights instruments
 - Conducting interviews and social science research
 - Finding ways to bridge community and traditional knowledge with Western science and law
-

EDUCATION

University of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii

GPA: 4.0

Ph.D., 2018

- Dissertation on Indigenous Climate Change Adaptation, Disaster Planning, and Community Resilience
- East West Center Student Affiliate, Seminar Facilitator

Tulane Law School, New Orleans, Louisiana

GPA: 3.41

Juris Doctor, 2004

- Certificates in Environmental Law & Clinical Education
- Excellence for the Future Award in Comparative Environmental Law
- Graduated Cum Laude
- Exchange Student, University of Buenos Aires, 2002

University of Oklahoma, Norman, Oklahoma

Master of Regional and City Planning, 2000

GPA: 4.0

Bachelor of Environmental Science, Minor in Political Science, 1999

GPA: 3.86

- National Merit Scholar
 - Graduated with Special Distinction
-

WORK EXPERIENCE

2020- Present Adjunct, Department of Geography and Anthropology, Louisiana State University

2012- Present Ristroph Law, Planning, and Research (Sole Proprietorship)

Clients have included the following:

- Sara Bolduc Evaluation and Planning, LLC: Undertake interviews and quantitative evaluation for the Pacific Island Partnership for Cancer Research, USAID's DisasterAWARE technology, and other programs for Pacific and Caribbean Islands
- Anthropocene Alliance: Assist with a national climate justice and environmental justice campaign involving a network of 200+ members by writing grants, providing advice to members, and providing input on national policy regarding flooding and environmental justice
- Pacific Island Forum Secretariat, Suva, Fiji: Write a brief on the role of community knowledges in climate mobility

- The Wilderness Society, Anchorage, AK: Research and draft language for novel Congressional bill to create inter-tribal Wilderness with indigenous stewardship
- Hoopa Valley Tribe, Hoopa, CA: Work with crime advocacy program to create policies, procedures, forms, and graphics to standardize operating procedures, build capacity, and promote the program
- Layla Hughes, Geneva, Switzerland: Drafting for Special Rapporteur on Right to Development and Climate Change; recommendations for due diligence requirements for European based corporations; recommendations for treaty on transnational corporations
- Tanana Chiefs Conference, Fairbanks, AK: Build a climate change program that layers across existing programs and assists tribal villages with renewable energy and adaptation; provide legal advice
- Huslia Tribe, AK: Legal assistance with erosion control, managed retreat, and healthcare sovereignty
- Louden Tribe, AK: Litigate Indian Child Welfare Act case
- Healy Lake Tribe, AK: Legal assistance with business development, policies, and healthcare sovereignty
- Office of Juan T. Lizama, Saipan, CNMI: Write legal briefs for court cases in matters of first impression
- Model Forest Policy Program: Evaluate of planning documents for rural communities and tribes with recommendations to mainstream climate change adaptation and boost resilience to hazards; assisted with development of course on climate change adaptation
- Newtok Tribe, AK: Legal counsel, project management, and planning a community impacted by climate change and seeking relocation
- National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Baton Rouge, LA: Plan for coastal restoration, including creation of new land through river sediment diversion and evaluation of impacts to marine mammals; consideration of adaptive management
- American Geophysical Union: In partnership with Sara Bolduc Evaluation and Planning, LLC, evaluate the success of Thriving Earth Exchange (community science partnerships) as the program prepares to expand
- Alaska Superior Court at Fairbanks: Mediate child custody cases
- Cheesh'na Tribe, AK: Draft Hazard Mitigation and Climate Change Adaptation Plan (approved by the Federal Emergency Management Agency)
- Allakaket Tribe, AK: Legal counsel, project management, and planning; assist in participation as cooperating agency working with national agencies on environmental analysis for projects; lead program to prevent domestic violence; build tribal court
- League of Women's Voters: Submit brief in Sinnok v. Alaska (Our Children's Trust climate change litigation)
- Wildlife Conservation Society: Draft guidelines Arctic cruise ships to protect communities and wildlife, research on standards for oil and gas field remediation
- Water Policy Consulting, LLC, Homer, AK: Assist with completion of vulnerability assessments for west coast Alaska villages; training on climate change adaptation
- American Society of Adaptation Professionals: Facilitate Resilience Dialogues for Carlisle, PA; served as mentor for adaptation professionals
- Arctic Athabaskan Council—Alaska: Advise indigenous group on matters related to administration and participating in Arctic Council meetings
- Pacific Environment, San Francisco, CA: Work with Russian and Alaskan environmental groups and communities on conservation, climate change research, and Arctic shipping
- Law Office of J. Sky Starkey, Anchorage, AK: Research Native law and co-management issues
- Harvey Consulting, LLC, Eagle River, AK: Research, draft, and edit reports pertaining to oil and gas and inspections
- World Wildlife Fund: Research and draft paper on Arctic shipping

- 2014-2015 Researcher, National Disaster Preparedness Training Center, Honolulu, Hawaii
- Design courses on resilience, disaster planning, and climate change adaptation
- 2012-2014 Arctic Program Representative, The Wilderness Society, Anchorage, Alaska
- Conduct legal research and provided advice on natural resource law and federal land management
 - Draft legal memos and comments on proposed development plans and projects related to National Petroleum Reserve-Alaska and hydraulic fracturing
- 2011-2012 Pro Bono Legal Specialist, American Bar Association Rule of Law Initiative, Manila, Philippines
- Work with national agencies, courts, and legal organizations to implement government and justice sector reform efforts
 - Draft and edit reports, work plans, and articles for outreach and monitoring and evaluation
 - Analyze human rights agreements and constitutional provisions to assist with recommendation for an ASEAN Human Rights Declaration
- 2007 - 2011 Assistant Borough Attorney, North Slope Borough, Utqiagvik, Alaska
- Provide legal advice on environmental and natural resources law, planning, land use regulation, Native/tribal law, contracts, and municipal government issues
 - Draft new land use and zoning code, contracts, permit stipulations, forms, and policies
- 2005 - 2007 Law Clerk, Northern Marianas Islands Superior Court, Saipan, Northern Marianas
- Research and analyzed issues concerning corporate, criminal, probate, contract, and local traditional law
 - Draft memos and court opinions
- 2005 Pro Bono Attorney, Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection
- Review draft regulations and permit applications
 - Assist in drafting litigation documents
- 2005 Consultant Attorney, Shroyer Legal Services, LLC, Baton Rouge, Louisiana
- Review and analyze oil drilling contracts
- 2004 Law Clerk, Smith Stag, LLC, New Orleans, Louisiana
- Draft petitions for large toxic tort cases
 - Reply to motions and discovery requests
- 2003 - 2004 Student Attorney, Tulane Environmental Law Clinic, New Orleans, Louisiana
- Research, write, and amend complaints, briefs, and motions
 - Initiate and respond to discovery requests, negotiated with opposing counsel
- 2003, 2002 Editor and Law Clerk, Allan Kanner & Associates, New Orleans, Louisiana
- Draft and edit sections of textbook, Environmental and Toxic Trials
 - Research legal issues related to environmental, tort, and contract cases
- 2000 Planning Coordinator, Center for Business & Economic Development, Norman, Oklahoma
- Organize initiative to implement Oklahoma's Scenic Byways Program

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS, BOARDS, AND GRANTS

- Board Member, Buy-In Community Planning (since 2023)
- Member of American Society of Adaptation Professionals (since 2018), Coordinator for affiliated

Climate Migration and Managed Retreat group (since 2022)

- National Academy of Sciences, Engineering and Medicine, Gulf Research Program, Committee on Managed Retreat (2022)
- Member, State Bar Associations of Louisiana (since 2004), Pennsylvania (since 2005), Alaska (since 2008)
- Treasurer, Tanana Valley Bar Association (2019)
- Principal in National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration Sectoral Applications Research Program Grant NA16OAR4310122, "Indigenous Climate Change Adaptation: Policies and Processes that Help and Hinder Alaska Native Villages Address Flooding, Erosion, Species Shifts, and Disasters" (2016-2018)
- Member of Sustainable and Healthy Communities Subcommittee, Board of Scientific Counselors, Environmental Protection Agency (Appointed by Scott Pruitt in 2017)
- Certified Economically Disadvantaged Small-Woman Owned Business (since 2018)
- Researcher for National Science Foundation Grant No. 1414199, "Adaptive coupling of human-environment linkages in response to globally driven changes in subsistence in rural Alaska" (2016)
- Member of Alaska Resource Advisory Council, Bureau of Land Management (Appointed by Sally Jewell, 2014-2017)
- Integrated Research on Disaster Risk Young Scientists Program (2017-2018)

LANGUAGES

- Spanish ● Strong reading, writing, listening, and speaking ability
- French ● Good reading, listening, and speaking, fair writing ability
- Russian ● Good listening and speaking; fair reading and writing ability

PUBLICATIONS

- Ristroph, E.B. 2023. "Using Community Knowledge to Inform Planned Relocation for Pacific Islands Communities," Suffolk Transnational Law Review 46(1). (forthcoming).
- Ristroph, E.B. 2023. "Pacific Community Relocations: Comparing Relocation Efforts in Alaska and Pacific," Toda Peace Institute Policy Brief No. 157 (April 2023).
- Ristroph, E.B. 2022. "Human Rights Due Diligence: Why It Matters and Why It's Not Enough Without Access to Remedies for Human Rights Violations," Syracuse Journal of International Law and Commerce 48.2: 417-434.
- Bolduc, S., J. Knox, and E.B. Ristroph. 2022. "Evaluating Team Dynamics in Interdisciplinary Science Teams: New Tools in Formative Assessment," Higher Education Evaluation and Development <https://doi.org/10.1108/HEED-10-2021-0069> (Sep. 13).
- Ristroph, E.B. 2022. "How Alaska Native Corporations Can Better Support Alaska Native Villages," American Indian Law Journal 10(1):64-94.
- Ristroph, E.B. (ed.) 2022. Who is Indigenous? Perspectives on Indigeneity, Identity, Dispossession, and Transition.

- Ristroph, E.B. 2021. “Strategies for Planned Community Relocation: A Case Study of Newtok Village, Alaska.” Journal of Environmental Studies and Sciences, <https://doi.org/10.1007/s13412-021-00711-3>.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2021. “The Morasses of Louisiana’s Coastal Restoration.” LSU Journal of Energy Law and Resources 9(2): 465-480.
- Howe, C. and K. Anderson, A.R. Siders, B. Ristroph, K. Spidalieri, J. Li, W. Burns, E. Kronk Warner, H. Tanana, H. Vizcarra. 2021. “Climate Change.” Chapter 24 in Law of Environmental Protection. Environmental Law Institute.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2021. “Subsistence in Alaska Native Villages: Adapting in the Face of Climate Change and Government Regulations.” Ch. 5 in Adapt and Be Adept, by Terry Anderson (Ed.) Stanford University.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2020. “Saving the Forgotten Crown Jewel of Louisiana’s Wetlands: Political Challenges to Preserving the Atchafalaya River Basin.” Loyola Public Interest Journal 22(1): 108-131
- Ristroph, E.B. 2020. “Can adaptive management help Alaska’s natural resource managers respond to climate change?” Natural Resources Journal 60 (1): 47-62.
- Shen, S. and E.B. Ristroph. 2019. “Are Climate-Vulnerable Communities Getting More Disaster Declarations? A Case Study of Flood-Prone Indigenous Communities in Alaska.” Natural Hazards Review 21(1): 05019004.
- Ristroph, E.B. and M. Robards. 2019. “Preparing for the Aftermath of Drilling on Arctic Lands.” LSU Journal of Energy Law and Resources 8(1):155-206.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2019. “Still Melting: How Climate Change and Subsistence Laws Constrain Alaska Native Village Adaptation.” University of Colorado Natural Resources, Energy, and Environmental Law Review 30(2):245-286.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2019. “Fulfilling Climate Justice and Government Obligations to Alaska Native Villages: What Is the Government Role?” William & Mary Environmental Law and Policy Review 43(2):501-539.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2019. “Improving Justice and Avoiding Colonization in Managing Climate Change-Related Disasters: A Case Study of Alaska Native Villages.” American Indian Law Journal 7(2):97-128.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2019. “Avoiding Maladaptations to Flooding and Erosion: A Case Study of Alaska Native Villages.” Ocean and Coastal Law Journal 24(2):110-135.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2019. “Addressing Climate Change Vulnerability in Alaska Native Villages Through Indigenous Community Knowledge.” Sociology Study 9(1):1-19.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2018. “Toward More Community Oriented and Collaborative Planning: A Case Study of Alaska Native Village Planning for Climate Change.” Civil Engineering and Urban Planning 5(2/3/4): 1-19.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2018. “Improving the Quality of Alaska Native Village Climate Change Planning.” Journal of Geography and Regional Planning 11(10):143-155.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2017. “When Climate Takes a Village: Legal Pathways Toward the Relocation of Alaska Native Villages.” Climate Law 7(4): 259-289.

- Ristroph, E.B. 2017. “Presenting a Picture of Alaska Native Village Adaptation: A Method of Analysis.” International Journal of Sociology and Anthropology 5(9): 762-775.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2017. “Pacific Walrus Protection and Management in a Changing Climate.” BRICS Law Journal 4(2): 6-39.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2016. “Strategies for Strengthening Alaska Native Village Roles in Natural Resource Management.” Willamette Environmental Law Journal 4: 57-124.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2015. “Traditional Cultural Districts—An Opportunity for Alaska Tribes to Protect Subsistence and Traditional Lands.” Alaska Law Review 31(2):211-229.
- Ristroph, E.B. and Anwar Hussain. 2015. “Wilderness: Good for Alaska, Economic and Legal Perspectives on Alaska’s Wilderness.” Washington Journal of Environmental Law & Policy 4(2):424-481.
- Yolanda, B., Rubinoff, C.B., Ristroph, E.B., Southwick, K. Inman, M., Kinsella, N., Radics, O. 2014. “The ASEAN Human Rights Declaration: A Legal Analysis.” American Bar Association Rule of Law Initiative.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2014. “Loosening Lips to Avoid Sinking Ships: Designing a Ship Communications System for the Bering Strait Region.” Indiana International & Comparative Law Review 24(3):581-664.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2012. “The Role of Philippine Judges in Establishing the Environmental Rule of Law.” Environmental Law Reporter News and Analysis 42(9).
- Ristroph, E.B. 2012. “Integrating Community Knowledge into Environmental and Natural Resource Decision-Making: Notes from Alaska and Around the World.” Journal of Energy, Climate, and the Environment 3(1):81-132.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2010. “Alaska Tribes’ Melting Subsistence Rights.” Arizona Journal of Environmental Law and Policy. 1:47-101.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2008. “The Survival of Customary Law in the Northern Mariana Islands.” Chicago-Kent Journal of International and Comparative Law. 8(1):32-65.
- Casey, M.R. and Ristroph, B. 2007. “Boomerang Litigation: How Convenient Is Forum Non Conveniens in Transnational Litigation?” BYU International Law & Management Review 4(1):21-52.
- Ristroph, E.B. and Fedyaev, I. 2006. “Obstacles to Environmental Litigation in Russia and the Potential for Private Actions.” Environs Law and Policy Journal 29(1):221-254.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2005. “Leave it to the Scientists! An Examination of Russian Environmental Policy-Making.” Albany Law Environmental Outlook Journal 10:33-84.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2004. “How Can the United States Correct Multi-National Corporations’ Environmental Abuses Committed in the Name of Trade?” Indiana International & Comparative Law Review 15:51-100.
- Kanner, A., Casey, R. & Ristroph, B. 2003. “New Opportunities for Native American Tribes to Pursue Environmental and Natural Resources Claims.” Duke Environmental Law and Policy Forum 14:155.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2002. “One Foot in the Green—Making Environmental Policy Choices in the United States and Russia.” The International Journal of Environmental Studies 5.
- Ristroph, E.B. 2000. “Law and Odour: Air Pollution in Mexico City.” Alternatives Journal 26(3):4.

- Rosenthal, L., Jones, J. and Ristroph, E.B. 1999. "Learning to Talk the Talk: Gender Differences in Adolescent Socialization to World Politics." Oklahoma Politics 8.
-

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE AND SKILLS

- Pro bono assistance in probate, family, and immigration law and promoting women's rights
- Highly proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Adobe Acrobat Professional
- Skills in SPSS and GIS